Minutes from the previous general meeting on 10 January 2019 were reviewed and approved with no dissensions.

Vice-President's Report:

Paint night fundraiser at Muse coinciding with a fundraiser night at Potbellys will be held on Monday 04 March. Register soon as there is a maximum attendance of 25.

Military ball will be held on Friday 29 March at the Marriott Hotel, Rio Center Gaithersburg. A draft operations order was distributed.

We will again be participating in the White House ornaments fundraiser. We plan on purchasing 500 total, but not all at once. We tentatively plan on setting our price per ornament at $25.

Shredfest is a potential fundraising event scheduled for a Saturday in early May to be held in Gaithersburg.

We are still scheduled to participate in the Olney Days parade on Sunday, 28 April.

The golf tournament is in the planning stages with the date still to be determined.

Secretary's Report:

Several locations and dates for holiday bazaars and craft fairs were reported for the sale of the the White House ornaments.

Program Instructor's Report:

JCLC (Junior Cadet Leadership Challenge) is scheduled for 17-22 June and has been relocated back to Ft AP Hill in Virginia. The final count of regarding the number of cadets allowed to attend is still to be determined. A merit based decision, to include factors such as grades and fitness, will be made on who can attend.

Claire's gourmet fundraiser is currently running. It is hoped the proceeds will help offset some costs of the Military Ball and to help fund an event such as paintball.

Recruiting efforts are underway at middle schools feeding into Magruder and other area high schools such as Rockville and Sherwood.

Uniform orders can now be placed so the cadets should have them in time for the Military Ball.

Treasurer's Report:

Current bank balance is $6,155.85.

New income (about $900) came from Amazon, Network for Good, community donations, and the Chipotle fundraiser. Outgoing expenses (about $1200) were for the Military Ball deposit.

Upcoming expenses include the White House ornament installment and Military Ball installment.

Tax documents for the previous 50/50 raffle winner are complete.
