Program Instructor's Report:

LTC Atherton mentioned several cadets volunteered to help sort gifts for the Toys for Tots program on 16 December.

Approximately 16 cadets have volunteered for Wreaths Across America on 18 December. The cadets are leaving at 7:00AM to travel to Arlington National Cemetery.

LTC Atherton reported the tentative date for the Magruder High School prom is 30 April. The senior cadets picked 1 April for the primary date for the Military Ball. The backup date is 25 March. Dana stated she will reach out to the venue to check availability.

General Discussion:

Dana and Debbie are investigating a new fundraising opportunity called Shop with Scrip. They will find out the details of the program and report back at the next meeting.

A cadet's father is fundraising for the victims of the tornado in Bowling Green, Kentucky. He is planning on driving a trailer full of donated supplies to KY in late December. He is looking for donated items such as clothes, socks, underwear, hygiene items, and non-battery toys to fill the trailer. LTC Atherton will reach out to the cadets and the board member will reach out to their contacts for donations.

The golf tournament is tentatively scheduled for 9 May at Montgomery Country Club. The president will reach to Montgomery Country Club after the holidays to verify the date and start initial planning. Dana mentioned we need the help of the board members and volunteers to make the event successfully. May 9th is a school day and Dana asked about cadet volunteers for the tournament. The colonel mentioned the senior cadets are the best candidates.
