Program Instructor's Report:

SFC Hyacinthe reported the bake sale fundraiser held last week raised about $300.00. Another bake sale is planned this week for senior night at the football game along with the cheerleading competition on Saturday.

SFC Hyacinthe stated he is looking into having the color guard present at a Washington Wizards. The downside is they have to pay for their tickets.

A raider team competition is scheduled for this Saturday in Alexandria, VA. He is scheduling more events for November 2022 and January 2023.

General Discussion:

A parent asked if the JROTC charges to have the color guard present color at an event. The answer was no. The color guard presents as a public service.

Mark Brown asked if the booster club was still a Student Service Learning (SSL). Dana responded we are still an SSL but can't issue SSL hours if the cadets are helping with fundraising.
