Program Instructor's Report:

SFC Hyacinthe reported on preparations for the Military Ball. Two photographers from the Magruder photography class will handle photos during the military ball. The theme for this year's military ball is masquerade. Cadets will bring masks for photos. Dana asked if the center pieces should complement the masquerade theme. Sergeant wants the center pieces to compliment the theme. The Military Ball program is completed and the media center is printing copies.

SFC Hyacinthe reported six cadets have signed up to support Olney Community Night Out at Good Council High School.

The paperwork for the Olney Days Parade were submitted and confirmation was received.

A visit to the Naval Academy is scheduled on 5 May and he expects approximately 49 cadets to go on the field trip.

Finally, SFC Hyacinthe announce the end of the year award presentations is schedule for 25 May at Magruder.

General Discussion:

Much of the discussion center around the Military Ball, Olney Days and the Strawberry Festival. Dana ask for parent volunteers to assist at both Olney Days and the Strawberry Festival.

Tent setup for Olney Days will start on Friday afternoon to load the truck in preparation for the next day. Cadets and volunteers are asked to meet at 9:00 AM on 29 April at Olney Manor Park. We are expecting it will take 2 to 3 hours to setup the tents. The 18x40 tent must be ready for county inspection by 11:00 AM. Tear down of the tents will start right after the fireworks display has ended (~9:15 PM).

The golf tournament is moving forward. The website for tournament registration and sponsorships went live this week.
